THE GREAT OLD WORLD.

The cynics mock her,
The red storms rock her,
The earthquakes shock her,
But on she rolls!
Downcast, elated—
For ruin slated,
She still goes freighted
With human souls!

The great seas thunder
And rend asunder—
The white stars wonder.
As Time grows gray;
But—reaping, sowing,
Her way she's going
To meet—unknown—
A Judgment Day.

But—joy go with her!
Nor slip his tether
When stormy weather
Makes grief and moan!
Tragedy—jest world—
Lost—unto-rest world,
Still—still the best world
We ever have known.
—Atlanta Constitution.

It is said that the alleged will of General Cassius M. Clay, dated November 11th, 1902, and purporting to leave White Hall to the Government, is only a scrap of paper picked up at General Clay's late home. The genuine will, recently printed, will be offered for probate today.

While on their way to the depot yesterday Mr. and Mrs. George L. Cox met with a slight accident by having the wheel of their barouche wrenched off by the rails of the streetcar in attempting to cross from one side of the track to the other. No one was injured, we are glad to say.

The Band Stand at the Fairgrounds is to be enlarged to double its present size in order to accommodate Weber's Band, which will furnish music at the Maysville Elks Fair. The Judge's Stand will be moved further East, as it now obstructs the view of horses coming down the stretch to the wire.

In the Federal Court at Cincinnati Saturday the Kentucky Consolidated Oil Corporation filed suit against David Powers, Almira J. Frost, Mary C. Wright, Emma Rector and Nora Ramsey. The suit involves the ownership of about 265 acres of land in Wayne county, Kentucky, and the plaintiffs allege that the defendants have a number of men engaged in drilling for oil, coal, salt and other minerals, and if not prevented from carrying out their plans will greatly injure the plaintiffs. Judge Cochran granted a temporary restraining order and set the case for hearing in this city on August 14th.

SANDFORD SUCCUMBS!

Death of Well Known Mail Clerk Who Formerly Ran Here.

Railway Mail Clerk T. C. Sandford, who ran over the Kentucky Central between this city and Covington during the years 1890-93, and whose critical condition has been noted in THE LEDGER, died Saturday at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Covington.

It will be remembered that in the Covington Yards on July 1st he was engaged in preparing mail in the car when a freight train backed into it, throwing him violently against the rack and causing injury to the spine that resulted later in paralysis of the lower part of the body and limbs.

Mr. Sandford had been in the Railway Mail Service since 1885, his last route being between Cincinnati and Livingston.

Five children and a widow survive.

CAUGHT AT LAST!

The Man Who Shot "Jeff" Holiday Arrested at Cincinnati.

The police at Cincinnati Saturday night arrested Louis Trix, who is charged with shooting C. W. B. Holiday, the brick contractor, on July 6th.

Holiday is still at the City Hospital with a wound in his breast.

Trix is considered to be one of the most desperate products of the bottoms. He has served time in the Penitentiary for burglary, and his picture is in the rogues' gallery. He has been in the Workhouse many times.

Holiday was shot while walking up Broadway between Third and Fourth streets. He was with several friends, one among them being a man named Leonard. According to the stories told at the time, there was a "frame-up" to rob Holiday of a large amount of money he was carrying around. His assailant walked up to him and placed the gun against his breast and fired.

MRS. JACOB MILLER.

There passed away yesterday evening at 5:15 at her home on the Fleming pike a good woman in the person of Mrs. Jacob Miller, who had been a patient sufferer for many weeks.

Mrs. Miller's maiden name was Faele Cox, a daughter of Captain John Cox, a pioneer of Ohio. She was born in Brown county, O., October 18th, 1822, and was married to Captain Miller July 13th, 1843. She had been a member of the M. E. Church for fifty-seven years.

In 1848 she took up her residence in this city and for fifty-five years she has lived a consistent Christian life in our midst, known and loved for her noble traits of character.

While deep sympathy is extended the children and relatives, the greatest sorrow is felt for him who for sixty years has been her companion in sunshine and storm, in joys and sorrows. Truly do we sorrow for him as he sits with bowed head alone and uncomfoted. May he seek comfort and solace in the knowledge that it is not long he is to be separated from his beloved, and that He who hath parted them for awhile doeth all things for the best.

Besides her husband she leaves two sons and two daughters—Jacob L. of Augusta and Charles of Cincinnati, Mrs. Maggie D. Slusser of Cincinnati and Mrs. Anna Means of this city, and numerous grandchildren.

The funeral will take place from the M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Revs. F. W. Harrop and J. S. Young officiating.

Saturday night the home and grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Means of East Second presented a fairy-like appearance. It was enjoyable to all, both young and old.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. W. E. Worick handsomely entertained Friday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Florence Wadsworth of Maysville, who was very handsome in black. The evening was greatly enjoyed, some seeking the beautiful lawn, others playing flinch or euchre, and dancing was enjoyed by most of the crowd until a late hour in the morning. At eleven refreshments were elegantly served in red and white. The dining-room all of red and white, decorated with red carnations, this with red lights made a picture that will long be remembered. The hostess did her part as usual in a charming, graceful manner. There were fifty or more guests. Visitors, Miss Gordon of Winchester, Mrs. Leer, Mrs. Spears, Paris; Miss Green Millersburg, Miss Hall Covington, Messrs. Corlis and McAttee of Brooksville. The elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. Worick could never look more beautiful to the eyes of the guests than it did on the evening of July 31st, 1903.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux," (dysentery) says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

The Commonwealth expects to close its case in the Jett-White trial at Cynthiana today. Henry Freeman was the most important witness introduced during Saturday. MOUNT GILEAD.

The men and boys are endeavoring to get up a sufficient company to enable them to charter a car to go to Montana in a few days.

The long, wearisome drouth is at last broken by a fairly good rain on last Wednesday night, followed by a gentle soaking shower on Friday. If it continues seasonable—as the fellow says—many a nubbin may be spoiled yet.

We have it indirectly that the boys of Gilead and vicinity, who were reported last week as having made a naughty raid in Mt. Carmel, want the report corrected. We know of no way of correcting it, as it was stated in referring to them as a party. If there should be one of the party who considers himself not so guilty as the rest he must remember the fact that he was in bad company and must suffer the consequences, after being heedless to the continuous warning not to keep bad company. If the young gentlemen(?) need another dose and it is found out they really must have it, they will be accommodated. It is our duty to bring out the truth, so that wrong may be put right.
